

DENTAL TECHNICIAN and DENTAL SPECIALIST

The names of the .pdf (Adobe Acrobat) files containing subcourses/manuals on this CD can be found in the “Table of Contents” (which also contains the links to detailed descriptions). In order to open a specific manual please note the name of the corresponding file, click “Open File”, select your CD-ROM drive (if it does not get selected automatically), and then double click that file.

The following will make browsing this CD and reading/printing manuals on it much simpler:

- You can always exit the full screen mode by pressing the “ESC” button.
- Clicking the “Bookmark” or “Thumbnails” tab in each subcourse will allow fast transition between screens.

If the links below do not work (which is likely to happen if you are not using a recent version of Adobe Acrobat Reader) you can either install the Reader (the installation file is included on this CD), or quit this screen and open subcourses using a different .pdf viewer.
